Handmaiden of the Lord Award

The Handmaiden of the Lord Award was established in July 1985 by the Lower Pinellas Deanery of the St. Petersburg Diocesan Council of Catholic Women (DCCW). With the approval of the Pastor, each of their Affiliations honors a member each year, who by her life and actions has demonstrated her willingness to give service to the Lord behind the scenes without a thought for recognition. This award is presented at the Spring Deanery Meeting.
