

Sunday Evening at the Movies

"Bella" (PG-13)

Diffley Hall

November 8th

Sunday Night 7:00 to 8:30 pm

A sentimental story about an unmarried New York waitress who loses her job after becoming pregnant, and her restaurant's empathetic chef—who gives her emotional support and gently persuades her to keep the baby. The movie's sensitive performances, positive depiction of the chef's warm Latino family, and its affirmative pro-life message – along with themes of self-forgiveness, reconciliation and redemption should resonate with parish viewers.

Book Study – Why Go to Church: The Drama of the Eucharist

Diffley Hall

January 5th, 12th and 19th, 2010

Tuesday Evening 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm

A Three-Week Book Study

A study on the book by Father Timothy Raddcliffe, will be facilitated by Father John Tapp and Kathy Proelke. This three-week study will explore the depth of what it means to go to church today. The Eucharist is a drama in three acts. Each act prepares us for the next. This study prepares parishioners for the third act of the Diocese's process of the "Living Eucharist."

Through the first act of listening to the Word, we grow in faith. In the second act, our faith and belief leads to hope and the Eucharistic Prayer. The final act, through the Eucharist and closing, our hope culminates in love. Finally we are sent to be Christ to the world. You can register by calling the parish office.

Sundaes on Sunday

"Wall-E" (G)

Diffley Hall

January 10th, 2010

Sunday Afternoon 12:45 pm to 3:30 pm

Beautiful and deeply touching fable about a soulful waste removal robot, the last on an abandoned, garbage-strewn earth, who falls in love with a visiting search robot and follows her onto a spaceship manned by an ineffectual Captain and populated by earth's passively sedentary obese refugees. This movie is a canny mix of sharp humor, honest sentiment with an underlying indictment of our consumer-oriented society and a timely environment warning. Come enjoy a good movie and delectable snacks such as ice cream sundaes, popcorn, etc. Please register at the parish office.

The Bishop's Pastoral Letter on The Living Eucharist

Bible Study for Holy Family Parish

The Great Adventure through the Bible: A Quick Journey through the Bible:

ECC Room in Diffley Hall Bldg.

September 13th, 20th, 27th and October 11th

Sunday Morning 10:30 – 11:30 am

In this DVD, which was shown and studied this past spring, author Jeff Cavins is as entertaining as he is informative, as he walks viewers through the entire scope of salvation history. Grab a donut and join us.

a) Little Rock: The Way of Justice and Peace (6 sessions)

Diffley Hall

August 25th through September 29th

Tuesday Morning 9:30 – 11:30 am OR

Tuesday Evening 7:00 – 9:00 pm

This study helps us to reflect on God's call to holiness and our response; the requirements of discipleship and the lasting rewards of following the way of justice and peace. This study gives a good foundation to anyone wanting to grow in public discipleship.

b) Little Rock: The Acts of the Apostles (10 sessions)

Men's Bible Study

Diffley Hall

September 22nd thru November 24th

Tuesday Evening 7:00 - 9:00 pm

The excitement of Pentecost enlivened the early believers in their struggles to establish communities of faith – struggles surprisingly like those of today.

~ REGISTRATION ~

Pre-registration is requested for all Holy Family Parish events. Please call the parish office at 526-5783 for more information and to register (unless otherwise specified.)

c) The Teen Great Adventure Bible Timeline – T3

Parish Office – Upstairs

October 4th through November 22nd

Sunday Afternoon 12:15 to 1:30 pm

This is a teen version of this revolutionary Timeline learning system. Dynamic teen presenter Mark Hart makes this study come alive for Catholic teens by unpacking God's Word in a way they can relate. T3 teaches teens by showing them the big picture of salvation history and prepares them to want more. Cost will be $5.00 per family. Contact Linda Johnston or Anne Wittine by calling the parish office by September 20th to register.

d) Leadership Training Program for Small Group Studies

Location – TBD

January 5th, 12th, 19th and February 2, 2010

Tuesday Evening 7:00 to 9:00 pm

Whether you're a Bible Study leader or a SCC facilitator who wishes to improve your leadership skills, this is for you. Leadership Training is a four-week session consisting of prayer, video/audio lectures, reflection, and discussion. This is an invitation to all who wish to grow in small community leadership skills that will help develop a confidence in leading groups. All are welcome!

SCC – Diocesan Training

Presented by the Diocesan Core

Community for SCCs

Diffley Hall

September 30th

Wednesday Evening 7:00 to 9:00 pm

A regional meeting to encourage ongoing prayer, faith sharing, mutual support learning and mission under the format of Small Christian Communities. Discussion will include information on seasonal and ongoing Small Christian Communities and resources used by these groups.

Sundaes on Sunday

"Boh" (PG)

Diffley Hall

September 27th

Sunday Afternoon 12:45 pm to 3:30 pm

The canine star of a TV show, raised to believe he has superpowers and that the program on which he continually rescues his beloved owner is real, is accidentally shipped cross-country and must make his way back with the help of a streetwise cat and an enthusiastic hamster. This endearing animated adventure sees its hero believe in himself and his companions and discovers the value of friendship and teamwork. This movie is for all ages. Come enjoy a good movie and delectable snacks such as ice cream sundaes, popcorn, etc. Please register at the parish office.

Coming Home

Ministry for Returning Catholics

Parish Office Bldg. – TBD

September 16th or October 21st or

November 18th

Wednesday Evening 7:00 to 8:30 pm

This is an introductory gathering for people who are seeking a return to the Church. We are non-judgmental. No questions are asked and no explanations are needed. It's a gentle, safe group of people interested in exploring and sharing their faith. Attend one of these sessions to get an overview of what the program is about. If you would like to learn more about the program, please call Mary Naughton at 727-365-3751 or e-mail her at marynaughton2004@yahoo.com.

Pre-registration is requested for all Holy Family Parish events. Please call the parish office at 526-5783 for more information and to register (unless otherwise specified.)

Why We Go To Mass!!

Small Christian Communities –

Faith Sharing Groups

Meet in Parishioners' Homes –

Week of Oct 5th through the

Week of November 14th

A 90-minute session each week

A three-segment DVD presented by Rev. J. Glenn Murray that energetically addresses issues such as table fellowship and ritual, then goes through the Mass explaining how each part calls for our "full, conscious, active participation" in God's work on earth.

All members of the parish are invited to join a small group. Groups of eight to twelve people meet in parishioner homes to pray, to read and to reflect on "Why We Go To Mass." Experience mutual support for each other as you grow in holiness and reach out to others in need. Sign up at Mass during "Sign-up Weekend" Saturday and Sunday September 26th/27th using forms in church or by using the parish Web site www.holyfamilyspete.com.

The Minor Prophets of the Old Testament (3 Large Group Sessions)

Diffley Hall

October 27th, November 3rd and 10th

Tuesday Evening 7:00 to 8:30 pm

Three Presentations by Father Paul

Over and above the more well known books of Isaiah, Jeremiah, and Ezekiel, the Old Testament contains short but fascinating works by twelve other prophets who provided inspiration and guidance for Israel from the 8th to the 5th century B.C. These three sessions will provide an overview of their work and a brief introduction to each individual book.

Pre-registration is requested for all Holy Family Parish events. Please call the parish office at 526-5783 for more information and to register (unless otherwise specified.)
