Inter-Faith Panel Presentation

Meeting Our Neighbors in Faith: Catholic, Muslim and Jew

Surely there is more to people of faith than what we read in the newspapers! Come learn about the basic beliefs of three major religions, meet leaders of our local faith communities, hear them talk about their faith experiences and find out what we have in common as children of the same loving God. There is no better way to start the new decade than to make the effort to understand one another so that we are better equipped to face the challenges of the world together, hand in hand.

The afternoon will include a presentation by each panelist, time for questions and answers, and an inter-faith prayer experience. Reverend John G. Tapp, pastor of Holy Family Catholic Church, will serve as the host and moderator for this event.

Light refreshments will be available after the event.
